The revised Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act will come into effect from July 9th, 2012. Major changes include a new residency management system, followed by the implementation of a points-based system for highly skilled professionals. As these changes will affect every foreign resident, the speakers will elaborate the main points and discuss how these changes are going to apply to your business and daily life.

Key points:

- Procedures at the Regional Immigration Bureau
- Re-entry permit
- Resident (“zairyu”) card
- Modified periods of stay
- Obligation to report changes to the authorities
- Points-based system
